

Richard Stephen Cranmer Jr. of Richboro died peacefully on Tuesday, Nov. 13, 2018, at home. He was 81 years old and the husband for 58 years to Gail (Penny) Cranmer. Born in Philadelphia, he was the son of the late Richard Stephen and Ruth Ann Ross Cranmer. Richard attended Bordentown Military Institute High School and graduated from Delaware Valley College with a Bachelor's degree in Animal Husbandry. After having served in the U.S. Army, he started work on a farm, but early on a back injury shifted his career to appliance repair. Richard then owned and operated Richboro Appliance Service for nearly 40 years. Many appreciative customers can attest to his strong work ethic, integrity and dedication. He had a kind and generous heart, always willing to chat or help someone out and give freely his time and energy. Richard loved flowers, birds, photography, and especially woodworking. We are grateful that he shared his woodworking talents with us by making treasured pieces for his wife, children, and grandchildren. In addition to his wife, he is survived by his daughters: Holly Romano and Samantha Neuman, seven grandchildren and one great-grandchild. He is also survived by his sister, Nancylee Mudd. His funeral service will be held at 11:30 a.m. Saturday, Nov. 17, at Reed and Steinbach Funeral Home, 2335 Lower State Road, Doylestown, where friends may call from 11 a.m., prior to the service. Interment will be held privately. In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made in Richard's name to the charity of the donor's choice.
