

Obituary for Richard W. Holeman

HOLEMAN, RICHARD W. of Stone Harbor, NJ passed away at his home on Tuesday, April 10, 2012. He was born September 25, 1922 and grew up in My Holly, NJ where he attended Bordentown Military Institute. He then went to Antioch College and Georgetown University Medical School. He completed his medical internship and residency in obstetrics and gynecology and then proudly served in the U.S. Army during the Korean War from 1950-52. He practiced medicine in Ridgewood, NJ from 1954-1986 and delivered over 6,000 babies.

Dr. Holeman loved being in the company of family and friends, especially during the holidays. He was extremely generous with his time and money and gave to many charities. He had a passion for cars, sports and good music. His mind remained sharp until the end and he could still play Jeopardy, Wheel of Fortune and Quizzo with his friends. He will be sorely missed.

Richard is predeceased by his first wife Lois, his daughter Donna and his second wife Natattie. He is survived by his children: Rusty Holeman of Stone Harbor; Nadine R. Fugate of New Bern, NC; Jack Rumsey of Phoenix, AZ and Lynne Pickett. His grandchildren: Jennifer Fugate-Nista of Mahwah, NJ; Rob Fugate of Scottsdale, AZ; Ryan Rumsey of Austin, TX; Cari Rumsey-Laughman of Hoboken, NJ. His great grandchildren: Colin Gurney, Taylor Gurney, Payton Nista of Mahwah, NJ; Zoe Rumsey of Austin, TX; Rob and Kaitlin Fugate of Rockford, MI. His great great grandchildren: Layla and Natalie Gurney of Mahwah, NJ.

Funeral services will be held 12 pm, Saturday, April 28th at the Perinchief Chapels, 438 High Street, Mt. Holly, NJ. A celebration lunch will follow.
